City Council Gets Dedication Data

The Rockville City Council, in an abbreviated session Monday night, was given additional details about plans for dedication of the Rockville Civic Center Auditorium on August 28.

The report was submitted by Edward Mack, chairman of the dedication subcommittee of the Civic Center Commission. He said the actual ceremony will be at 4 p.m., and will be preceded by an art show in the Civic Center and a concert by the Rockville Band.

The auditorium will be dedicated by Mayor Alexander J. Greene. According to Mack, additonal speakers will participate and further details of the program will be announced in the near future.
